

CONCERTO COMPETITION 2019

Application deadline: March 18, 2019

Audition date: Sunday March 31, 2019

The Brattleboro Music Center (BMC) is pleased to announce Windham Orchestra's 33rd annual concerto competition, open to serious instrumental and vocal music students in grades 9 through 12 who live or attend schools in the following counties:

VT: Windsor, Windham, Bennington

NH: Cheshire, Sullivan, Grafton

MA: Berkshire, Franklin, Hampshire

Auditions for the competition will be held on Sunday, March 31, 2019 at the Brattleboro Music Center, 72 Blanche Moyse Way, Brattleboro, VT, 05301.

We must receive your application on or before March 18, 2019. No recorded auditions will be accepted. There is a $25 application fee payable by cash, check or credit card.*

All instruments, including voice, are welcome to apply. You may perform any concerto movement (or other accompanied solo piece) within the limits of the following orchestration: strings, 2fl, 2ob, 2cl, 2bsn, 4hrn, 3trp, 3trb, tuba, timp. If your piece requires other instruments, please contact us in advance at (802) 257-4523 or info@bmcvt.org.

Your audition must be accompanied and you are expected to provide your own accompanist. Following the application deadline, we will schedule your audition time. At the audition, you will have approximately ten minutes time to play, and a few minutes for conversation with the panelists. Winner or winners might play one movement or an entire piece, depending on programming. If you have questions, please contact the Brattleboro Music Center.

The winner(s) will receive $200 and the opportunity to perform with the Windham Orchestra under the direction of Maestro Hugh Keelan. The Windham Orchestra, founded in 1969, is composed of amateur and professional musicians.

* Financial assistance is available; please inquire: 802.257.4523. Make checks out to BMC.

We are grateful to Douglas Cox, violin maker, for funding this annual competition.
